Spend Some Time in Her Shoes

Every woman has a story; a story that involves challenges and victories, pain and joy, fear and peace. But what if we were able to spend some time in her shoes? Would what we see, think or feel about her change?

Becoming a Woman of Power with God

Becoming a woman of power does not mean becoming a woman who controls and dominates. It does mean becoming a woman who influences her marriage, home, family, workplace, and faith community in a positive and edifying way. A woman of power builds up rather than tearing down.

Raves and Reviews...

Lauren Breslin, Communications Educator

"Sherry Poundstone is a Holy Spirit gifted teacher, whether one-on-one, in a small group setting or a large congregation. She is a valuable asset for any speaking event!"

Lesia Knudsen, Minister/Life Coach

"Sherry Poundstone is a dynamic, gifted, anointed, powerful and compassionate speaker. Her passion to see believers grow into the full knowledge and love of Jesus Christ is evident in her teaching and her compassion, for the people God has entrusted to her."

Paula Friedrichsen, Speaker/Author

"We recently invited Sherry Poundstone to speak at our regional church conference, and we were so delighted with her teaching, event participation, and pastoral care of the conference attendees. Sherry is a leader of leaders and an established mother to many in the body of Christ. Her teaching is biblical, insightful, and transformational."

Richel Garcia, Women's Ministry Director

Sherry Poundstone has been our Women's Retreat speaker twice! That's how much we love her! Sherry is an amazing speaker and listens intently to the spirit for direction. She prays and prays to make sure she is speaking exactly what God wants her to. She is very personable and we have made lasting relationships with her. God definitely blessed us with her!

Julie Minedew, Women's Retreat Chairman

Sherry has spoken at retreats and luncheons for our church a number of times. Her presentations are rock solid biblically as well as practical and transformative. She is an absolute delight to work with!
